QUALITY SYSTEM INFORMATION

- SILICA, Avnet Memec, Avnet Abacus and Avnet SCS are distributors for electronic components and micro systems and do not perform any kind of manufacturing or designing activities.
- Avnet EMG operates a Quality Management System in accordance with ISO9001:2008. Avnet EMG does not deem it necessary to include all of its European locations, which are essentially sales offices.

Assessment on a continual basis by third-party assessment body BSI. Please refer to specific certificate.

- Logistics and Value Added Processes are sourced out to Avnet Logistics GmbH. Orders received at the sales offices are fulfilled by shipment of goods from warehouses based in Poing, Germany and Tongeren, Belgium. Avnet Logistics maintains its own Quality Management Systems in accordance with ISO9001, TS16949, ISO14001, EN61340-5-1 & 2, JESD 625-A and ANSI ESD S20.20. <http://www.avnet-logistics.eu>
- An Attestation of Conformance is issued by the relevant warehouse with every shipment. Please note this is a distributor's AoC and not the manufacturer's.
- Traceability is maintained back to the supplier via product date codes.
- The business software platform used by Avnet EMG is SAP.
- Avnet EMG's Quality Management System is maintained by Avnet Logistics. There is no individual quality representation for any specific country or location.
Quality Manager in charge: Mr. Klaus Ullmer mailto: klaus.ullmer@avnet.eu
- Please direct any further enquiries, not satisfied by the information published within this document, to your local sales representative, who will be pleased to assist you.
- Avnet welcomes visits from its customers to audit its quality management system by appointment only. Please contact your designated sales contact, they will be pleased to make the necessary arrangements.
